DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The Examiner has carefully considered Applicant's amendments and remarks dated September 12, 2005. Amendments to claims 1 and 2 have been entered. All previously made rejections are now withdrawn in light of Applicant's amendment to the claims that now add a third- waterproof layer. Currently, there are only two claims under going prosecution.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1 and 2 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over USPN 5102711 issued to Keller et al.

5. Keller et al in a nutshell disclose a flexible, breathable, non-linting, composite having a middle layer of padding and a top and bottom layer comprising a sheet of water impermeable, water-vapor-permeable film bonded to the middle layer. Preferably the top and bottom layers comprise (a) a flexible first sheet of hydrophobic material having a water vapor transmission rate exceeding 1,000 gms/m.<sup>2</sup> /day; and (b) a continuous hydrophilic sheet attached to or penetrating the first sheet having a water vapor transmission rate exceeding 1,000 gms/m.<sup>2</sup> /day and forming a barrier to passage of fluids. The composite material is useful in applications such as padding under orthopedic casts and thermal insulation in apparel. The only limitation not alluded to by the reference are the process steps of bonding. It is the examiner's position that the composite of Keller et al is identical to or only slightly different than that of Applicant's. Even though product-by-process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process. In re Thorpe, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985). The burden has been shifted to the applicant to show unobvious differences between the claimed product and the prior art product. In re Marosi, 218 USPQ 289, 292 (Fed. Cir. 1983). The Keller et al reference either anticipated or strongly suggested the claimed subject matter. It is noted that if the applicant intends to rely on Examples in the specification or in a submitted Declaration to show non-obviousness, the applicant should clearly state how the Examples of the present invention are commensurate in scope with the claims and how the Comparative Examples are commensurate in scope with the Keller reference/patent.. Additionally, it is well known in the art of embossing to use patterned rollers to impart designs on films. And a skilled artisan would have found it obvious to use a heated patterned roller while forming the rubber layer, motivated by the reasoned expectation of providing a rough surface, which would enable better adhesion once the composite is formed.

Conclusion

6. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

Art Unit: 1771

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
